CATEGORIES/TYPES OF TRAINING

SPLIT UNIT TRAINING ASSEMBLIES (SUTA). Code: N/A. Training that can best be conducted at a place and/or time other than the regularly scheduled MUTA/UTA by individuals or other parts of the unit.

EQUIVALENT TRAINING (ET). Code: N/A. Training performed to make up regularly scheduled MUTA/UTA missed by an individual due to unforeseen emergency situations of a personal nature. No more than four UTAs may be made up with pay during the fiscal year. ET must be performed in uniform within 60 calendar days after the missed MUTA/UTA.

ADDITIONAL TRAINING ASSEMBLIES (ATA). ATAs are authorized for the improvement of unit level (company, battery, troop, and detachment) training and readiness. Types of authorized ATAs are as follows:

JUNIOR LEADERSHIP TRAINING FOR CIVIL DISTURBANCE (JLTCD).

Code 51. Two ATAs are authorized for company grade officers and enlisted personnel in leadership positions in units with a civil disturbance mission. ATAs are also authorized for support functions of this program. ATAs are allocated by separate letter on the basis of State plans, funds available, and civil disturbance threat. One ATA will consist of a minimum of four hours of training, and individual use is limited to one ATA per day and two ATAs per fiscal year, except for support personnel.

ADDITIONAL FLIGHT TRAINING PERIODS (AFTP). Code 31. AFTPs are authorized to provide aviators and crewmembers the additional time necessary to develop and maintain combat readiness to meet mobilization readiness requirements. The total ATAs authorized each aviator and crewmember is 24 each FY.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS ADDITIONAL TRAINING ASSEMBLIES (NWATA).

Code 61. NWATAs are authorized for selected personnel in each Divarty, FA Bde HHB, 155mm and 8-inch FA Battalion and armored cavalry howitzer battery for nuclear weapons and emergency action training. NWATA will consist of four hours of training. While four hours is the minimum, there are no restrictions on conducting two 8 hour NWATAs back to back (weekend). Individual use is limited to one NWATA per day and a maximum of eight per FY. NWATAs may not be converted from officer to enlisted mandays or vice versa without full justification and NGB approval. See Appendix A for Code 61 allocations.

ADDITIONAL UNIT TRAINING ASSEMBLIES (AUTA).

Code 41. Six AUTAs are authorized each FY for officers and enlisted personnel in airborne positions assigned to airborne units, pathfinder detachments, special forces units, infantry ranger companies or TOE/TDA positions requiring the maintenance of parachute qualification, to include parachute riggers. They are also authorized for other non-airborne qualified personnel in the unit conducting the AUTA who are required to support or participate in the airborne proficiency training.

READINESS MANAGEMENT ASSEMBLIES (RMA). RMAs are additional paid assemblies over and above the currently authorized 48 drill assemblies. RMAs are divided into two categories, Training (Code 71) and Management/Support (Code 91) as follows:

TRAINING RMA. Code: 71. Training RMAs are authorized to plan, coordinate, assist and supervise training of subordinate units; preparation of training in units or other activities related directly to the improvement of military training.

MANAGEMENT/SUPPORT RMA. Code: 91. Management/Support RMAs are authorized for, but not limited to, the following: preparation of orders; review of personnel records for update; maintenance of unit library; board actions; preparation of OERs, EERs, and SEERs; typing support for supply, maintenance and administrative actions; inventories; preparation for issue of clothing and equipment; preparation and update of mess management administration; menu preparation and food service meetings; files maintenance; counseling; USR/2406 preparation; IG/CLRT preparation; and conduct of reports of survey.
